

BARROWS' FUNERAL SUNDAY

To Be Held at All Saints' Church at Three O'clock.

BURIAL TO BE AT PROSPECT HILL

Rev. T. J. Morley of All Saints' Church to Preach the Funeral Service—Quartet to Furnish the Music.

The funeral services for Benjamin H. Barrows, surveyor of customs and custodian of the federal building, who died Friday at his home, 325 South Twenty-sixth street, are to be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at All Saints' church. Interment will be in Prospect Hill cemetery.

The Rev. Thomas J. Mackay, pastor of All Saints' church, will deliver the funeral sermon. A special quartet, selected from the church choir, will furnish the music.

It is expected that All Saints' church will be filled to capacity with the intimate friends of Mr. Barrows. He was one of the most widely known and respected men in Omaha. He was ever remarked for his fine character and his high qualities of mind and heart, and especially revered by the men who have worked under him. As custodian of the federal building he won a lasting place in the hearts of those employed through him even to the janitors. Mr. Barrows was a member of the juvenile department of the Public Library, which was installed when he was librarian, is a special indication of this fact. And the youthful patrons of the public library will always appreciate the juvenile department and connect it with the memory of him.

The establishment of this department in the library was probably because of his equanimous fondness for children and their desires and books of all kinds.

This love for books was one of Mr. Barrows' characteristic traits.

This trait was developed in boyhood and remained as one of his chief characteristics throughout his newspaper work, his business, and as head of the literary department of the Union Pacific and as librarian.

In the fall of 1897 Mr. Barrows was engaged to do literary work for the national republican committee in the course of which he collected a vast amount of information about Nebraska and neighboring states. As a trained political writer he was well equipped for this important service.

Mr. Barrows was a recognized authority on books, having collected a large library of old volumes. His death preceded the limitation of his commission as surveyor of customs by a little more than a month.

The pallbearers who will act at the funeral Sunday afternoon are Ezra Millard, Joseph Thomas, James Burness, William Chidick, Robert Smith and J. A. Gavars. The honorary pallbearers have been named as follows: J. H. Millard, G. W. Claiborn, Edward P. Beck, W. F. Gurley, C. F. McGrew, F. B. Kennard, B. F. Thomas and Alfred Millard.

KATHERINE MITCHELL DEAD

Daughter of Veterans Detective Succumbs to Tuberculosis—Funeral Monday.

Katherine Mitchell, 22 years old, daughter of Thomas Mitchell, city detective, died at the family home, 288 Ohio street, early Saturday morning, after a long illness with tuberculosis.

Miss Mitchell had been employed as a stenographer for a publishing house. Her father has been long in the service of the city detective department.

The funeral is to be held at Sacred Heart church Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Nebraska Historians and Pioneers Meet

Historical Societies Will Hold Joint Sessions in Lincoln, Beginning January 9.

The Nebraska State Historical society will convene for its thirty-fourth annual session at Lincoln, January 9, and continue for three days, meeting jointly with the Nebraska Territorial Pioneers' association. The business will be opened Monday at the rooms of the historical society in the library of the university with directors' meeting of the two organizations. In the evening the historical society will hold its annual banquet at the Lincoln hotel with John Lee Webster, the president, as toastmaster. Responses will be made by Governor Aldrich, Isaiah L. Albert, Chancellor Avery, Dr. W. M. Davidson and William F. Gurley.

Tuesday the business meetings of the two organizations will be held and at noon the dinner of the pioneers. In the evening there will be a joint session which will include music by Miss Frances Virginia Melton, an address on the history of the west by Dr. E. F. Shambaugh, president of the Mississippi Valley Historical association, a paper on Bellevue by Edward L. Barry, and a paper on Indian tribes by James Money of the Bureau of American Ethnology.

Wednesday the following program will be given:

8 a. m.—Conference of local historical societies. Hon. Samuel C. Bassett, presiding. 10:30 a. m.—Ethnological conference. Mr. James Money presiding. 2 p. m.—Address on "The Omaha Indians," by Mr. Robert F. Gilder; "Field Work in Iowa," by Mr. Edgar R. Harlan; "Folk Songs of the Omaha Indians," (illustrated), Prof. Melvin R. Gilmore, Oberlin university (reproductions on the phonograph of original recordings by Prof. Gilmore and harmonized on the piano by Miss Edna Wright).

3 p. m.—Joint session Nebraska State Historical society and Nebraska Territorial Pioneers' association; address, "The Indian Woman," by Mrs. James M. Moore; address, "The Women of Territorial Nebraska," by Mrs. Kittie McGraw; piano solo (Chopin), Ballade op. 25, by Mrs. Minnie P. Knotts, librarian Nebraska State Historical society.

Oldest Varsity President Resigns. LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 31.—James C. Patterson, 144 Ph. D. and fellow of the Royal Geographical society of Great Britain, today formally ended his tenure of office as president of the State University of Kentucky. He has held the place forty-five years and in point of service was the oldest college professor in America. Dr. Patterson's successor will be Henry S. Parker, until today chief justice of the Kentucky court of appeals.

Hundred and Fifteen Years Old. CALUMET, Mich., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Mary Benche, widow of the late Chief Benche of the Chippewa tribe of Indians, died yesterday at her home in Baraga, Mich., at the age of 115 years. She spent her entire life in the upper peninsula, except a few years spent at LaPointe, Wis. She leaves two children, seventeen grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

January Sale -- Green Seal of Quality Furniture

Our tag policy will continue during the new year and during every other year. To our tag policy contract we have added a green seal of quality. This is to show the regularity of the goods offered. We want you to see every advantage. We have not changed the original prices. Every article is tagged with the original contract-policy-tag which bears the original price mark. It assures full discount and proves the efficacy of Tag Policy. Our green seal of quality also is on every piece, and bears the lowered mark. This seal establishes the quality and stability of the furniture now offered. The original tag remains unaltered. The green seal of quality is simply added to guarantee the great concession. The prices range from 10 to 50 per cent under original prices. Only a few daily demanded articles are 10 per cent less. Much furniture is 25 and 33 1/2 per cent less. The majority of the notably reduced articles are 50 per cent lower.
